

ALEXANDRIA,

THUESDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 6.

MR. SPEAKER REED insists that he shall count members of the House present though they do not vote; in other words that he has the right to force members to vote for the legitimate means members have of defeating measures to which they object is that of not voting, and it is as effective as voting in the negative. For various good reasons a member may not want to vote; and to say that he shall, and by doing so, pass a bill to which he and his constituents are opposed, is what no man who has read the Constitution of the country will agree to. Why, non-action is specially provided for in the Constitution, the President being authorized thereby to approve or reject a bill at his pleasure by failing to sign it within a certain number of days, and the right of non-action thus specially conferred upon the President, is, by plain implication, also conferred upon the members of Congress.

THE LEGISLATURE, instead of re-establishing the whipping post, as it should have done, and thereby reduced the criminal ex penses of the State one half, is now considering silly propositions to effect a reduction in those expenses by paring down the small salaries and fees the law officers are allowed. The pay such men now receive is so small that in many instances the laws are executed inefficiently, and, if made smaller, even less efficient men will have to be employed-The criminal expenses of the State, in her present financial condition, are simply out rageous, and that they should be reduced is one of her most pressing needs. The most effective way to attain that desired reduction is to reduce the number of criminals and to reduce the expense of each one, both of which objects would be readily accomplished by the substitution of lashes for imprisonment.

A LARGE woolen manufactory in Philadelphia has suspended, its manager says, by reason of the duty on wool, which made its products so high that they could not be dis posed of. Of course all the hands in the factory are now idls, and many of them, consequently, suffering for the necessaries of life, the price of which is also doubled by the tariff. And still the protectionists say the protective tariff protects labor.

OF ALL the sixty million people in this country there is not one subject to the ordi nary emotions of humanity who is not sorry for the terrible misfortune that recently befel Secretary Tracy ; but even the Secretary himself, if he be a sensible man, will fail to see why the legislature of Virginia should have suspended its work in order to pass a resolution of sympathy for him in his perso

The House committee on rules was again in session this morning and amended its report on the rules in accordance with the action of yesterday's republican caucus. The rules were subsequently reported to the House and ordered to be printed. They will not come up in the House for debate until Monday, when, after the democrats shall have consumed as much time as the republicans think proper, the previous ques tion will be called and they will be pushed measures to which they are opposed. ### Letter from Richmond.

[Correspondence of the ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE. RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 5 -A compromise bill was to day introduced in the House by Mr. Hume, of Alexandria, relating to the Mount Vernon avenue. The original bill had some features in it objectionable to Mr. Gibson, of Culpeper, who is chairman of the to flee. Committee on Federal Relations, but the bill introduced to-day is satisfactory to all parties. It allows the United States government the right to build the Mount Vernon avenue. The bill will get on the calendar to morrow or the day after and will then ad vance to its passage without any objection

Some of the members of the House who voted for the adoption of the resolution introduced by Mr. Cabell looking to the converting of the Petersburg Normal and Collegiate Institute into a lunatic asylum have gotten their mettle up on account of the ac-tion of the Senate, that body having adopted a report of a committee, of which Senator Lovenstein, of Richmond, is chairman, re commending the rejection of Mr. Cabell's lowed the wise advice of Ger. Washington, to ly ought to have adopted the resolution as it came from the House. The resolution simply called for the appointment of a committee to report simply upon the advisability of changing the school into a lunatic asylum The action taken by the Senate will, it is of the legislative department of the government of sixty million people, and yet it deasylums recalls to mind a statement made to day by Mr. Cabell. He says the appropriations that will be asked for for the various State institutions above the regular appropriations will reach two hundred thousand dollars. This is one argument he is using in advocacy of the abolishment of the colored Normal School at Petersburg, the simple lighting of which costs thirteen hundred dollars a year.

There were beautiful speeches made in the House to day by Speaker Cardwell and Mr. Dabney, of Albemarle, in advocacy of the resolutions of sympathy expressed for Secretary Tracy. The Senate adopted the resolutions as soon as they came from the House.

Among the visitors at the Capitol to-day were ex Congressman Cabell, of Pittsylva-nia, and ex Senator Rhee, of Washington county. The latter is here looking after some legislation affecting Bristol.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENTS .- Two shocking accidents occurred yesterday at Roeblings' wire mill at Trenton, N. J. Charles Cheattle, aged seventeen years, was pierced through the body and for an instant sus pended in the air on a red hot rod about three inches in diameter. Mart Molesky, a fine wire drawer of the same mill, was pierced in the stomach about midnight last night. The wire broke and the end entered the stomach. The "reel" runs very fast and when the fine wire entered Molesky he was pinned in a corner, and before the reel could be stopped about ten feet of it had curled up in the man's stomach. William Mershon was killed in the same mill yester day by the breaking of an electric wire.

FLOODS IN OREGON.—A phenomenal rain storm has prevailed in southern Oregon tion. since last Friday, which, in connection with the melting snows in the mountains, has caused the greatest flood known since that country was settled. He therefore hoped that the Senate would not adjourn over till Monday.

Mr. Hawley suggested that to-morrow be assigned to debate on the school bill and that no other business be done. He added that, when Senators adjourned over, it was not to escape work, but to do work.

Mr. George remarked that Fridays and Saturdays were the busiest days he had.

Mr. Blair declined to accept Mr. Hawley's proposition, and said that if Senators desired to ignore the education bill and not to attend the session when it was under discussion, they could do so on their own re sponsibility; but he would not be a party to it. He withdrew his opposition to the motion to adjourn over, and the motion was agreed to.

The democratic members held a caucus last night to discuss the matter. Mr. Springer thought the rules meant that the watchmen were gagged, the watchdogs chained and the treasury thrown open to plunder. But the general sentiment was that no matter how obnoxious the rules are they were asked for by the democrats and would be considered in a fair spirit. Mr. Carlisle was instructed to negotiate with the majority managers for a reasonable time to consider the rules in case they should be reported to-day. The republicans will also be requested to allow a debate of reasonable length upon them when they are called up for consideration, and if these concessions are granted the democrats will interpose no unusual obstacles to action up-
